

BMJ Awards Conference Programme
24 April 2019

In a challenging political climate, it is easy to overlook the exceptional work that is being done every day by those who are using creativity and courage to improve care for patients and their communities. This year's conference programme will give inspiring examples from people across the healthcare sector who have turned brilliant ideas into action and made a real difference in their organisations.

1300 - 1315	WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION Fiona Godlee Editor in Chief, The BMJ
1315 - 1355	WHERE ARE THEY NOW? UPDATES FROM PREVIOUS BMJ AWARD WINNERS Navjoyt Ladher will interview three previous winners about how their BMJ Award gave them a platform to further develop their projects, the successes and challenges they have faced along the way and what they plan to do next.
1355 - 1435	PATIENT INNOVATORS In this inspiring session we'll hear from service users who are taking the lead in improving lives of others in their community, from social prescribing to co-designing services and more.
1435 - 1445	BREAK
1445 - 1530	BEING READY FOR THE CHANGE THAT'S COMING Helen Bevan Chief Transformation Officer, NHS Horizons; UK We are seeking to improve healthcare in a world that is increasingly dynamic, fast moving and with so many complex dilemmas that there is often no "right" answer to the problems that we face. In this lively and interactive session, Helen Bevan will help us explore some of the latest ideas, tools and approaches from leading practitioners of large scale change around the globe.

Programme subject to change